

Bernd Hiller

Master Violin Maker

Bernd Hiller, born 1963 in Berlin, completed his education in Markneukirchen under master violin maker Bernhard Wölz. He obtained his master craftsman's diploma in 1986. He was awarded with the first price in the violin maker's competition "Jacobus Stainer" in the viola category in 1990.

He is member of the International Viola Association, the German Union of Violin Makers (VDG), and the Guild of Musical Instrument Makers of the Vogtland.

Daniel Hiller

Master Violin Maker

After receiving his journeyman's certificate at his father's workshop, Daniel collected a great deal of experience in master workshops in Germany with violin maker Thilo Kürten in Düsseldorf, Wilhelm Brückner in Erfurt and bow maker Günther Paulus in Markneukirchen. Since 2009 he has been collaborating with his father in his workshops.

Daniel obtained his master craftsman's diploma in 2012. He is senior master of the Guild of Musical Instrument Makers of the Vogtland.
